directions → Think about one of the most meaningful gifts you gave. Draw a line connecting the cause you gave to (left and right side) with the Jewish value (center) that inspired the gift.

I typically give to:

Those way outside my community

My broader community

My immediate community

Closest friends and family directions → Place 1 sticker to reflect who you give to. Feel free to define “community” in the way that you understand it.

This past year, when I gave:

directions → Place 1 sticker in the quadrant that most fits your experience.

I gave rather quickly and after talking to other people

I took time and talked to other people before giving

I gave quickly,
without talking to anyone beforehand

I took lots of time to think about it, but didn't talk to anyone

Ways I give:

directions → Place one sticker in each section that represents how you contribute to causes you care about.
